Zeitschrift für Familienforschung / Journal of Family Research

The Journal

For almost three decades, Zeitschrift für Familienforschung / Journal of Family Research has been publishing original research on theoretical, empirical and methodological issues with regard to all aspects and stages of living in families and intimate relationships over the life course as well as the interrelations between family and society. It is the journal's aim to encourage and promote interdisciplinary discussion on all family-related research issues, critical assessment of the current state of the art, and innovative approaches on investigating family life.
